D. KLASS.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—M. T. Craft is fitting up a law office up stairs on corner of Main and Sublimity streets.

—A new family grocery store has been opened by Chris Jackson in the Thompson building.

—A protracted meeting, conducted by Rev. Medeuris, a Baptist minister, is in progress at the Methodist church.

—Some of the boys visited the Swiss colony Sunday. They keep it on ice over there; not the colony, but the beer.

—Some of the young folks attended church at Laurel River Sunday. E. B. Hayden, of Springfield, Mo., is here on business. Mr. Bruzzleton and family, of Knoxville, Tenn., are stopping at Mrs. Farris'.

—The democracy of Laurel county are requested to meet at the court-house Saturday, July 28th, 1:30 P. M., to elect delegates to the Congressional Convention to be held at Danville, August 8th.

J. L. YADEN, Chmn.

—When a man is calling on his best girl and a rooster in the back yard commences to crow with all his might at just 9:17 P. M., there is going to be a large democratic victory right soon, or that rooster is crowing for a salary one.

—A paper is being circulated soliciting by subscriptions money to macadamize, or rather to improve with coal slack, Main street. The amount sufficient to do the work has, with the exception of a small sum, been donated and work will soon begin.

—The Laurel County Anti-Chinese Club held a meeting Saturday, July 21, at the court-house. A good crowd was in attendance, more names were enrolled, a rousing speech was delivered by Hon. Joseph A. Craft and much enthusiasm was manifested.

—The present sheriff of this county is working hard for re-election, but his efforts will be in vain, if every democrat will do his duty at next August election. Patrick Casey has announced himself as a democratic candidate and will get all the knights of labor votes. Pat will make a good sheriff. Let everybody vote for him. He is a democrat, any way.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—The doctors of the county have formed a medical association.

—Main & Co.'s show will exhibit here to-day, a large crowd already in town.

—Sunday night, in returning from preaching, a difficulty arose between Jno. Proctor and John Parker, in which Parker was fatally stabbed. The wounded man is alive at this writing, Monday morning. He made a statement of the affair, which is about as follows: Proctor was returning from church with some young ladies; Parker followed and desired the company of one of them, Miss Maggie Reynolds, to which she objected, saying she didn't want that fool with her. Hot words passed between them; then Parker shook his fist in the young lady's face. Proctor interferred and the difficulty waxed warmer, when blows were exchanged. Proctor used his pocket knife, cutting a deep gash in Parker's breast and two in his bowels. The wounded man will not likely live thro' the day. Proctor surrendered and is under guard. Proctor is the young man upon whose head the doctors have twice performed the difficult operation known as trephining, removing each time a portion of the skull. Young Parker is the son of Pat Parker, who came here from Tennessee some years since.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Mr. Craig Lynn, one of the cleverest and most honorable men who ever lived in this county, died at his home near Hails Gap Friday morning at 9 o'clock, after a week's illness of typhoid flux, in his 71st year. Professing religion when a mere boy, about 50 years of Mr. Lynn's life had been spent in the Baptist church, of which he had always been a most devout and active member. As a neighbor he was good and kind, always showing himself to be the superb gentleman he was; as a husband he was affectionate and true; as a father he was a father in the whole sense of the word and as a friend he was sincere and obliging. Never was he known to turn a cold shoulder to any one, but in his frank and honest way he made scores of friends who will not soon forget the kindnesses they had received at the hands of "Uncle Craig," as he was familiarly called. Straightforward in all of his dealings and living a life which was a model one, Mr. Lynn had the pleasure of knowing that he had not an enemy in the world. He leaves a wife and three children. His sons, Messrs. John G. and James E. Lynn, are representative business men of this section, and his only daughter, who married Mr. A. C. Tucker, who died at Mr. Lynn's a few weeks ago, is known to be a most lovable lady. She too is now very low with the same dread disease which so recently has robbed her of husband, father and child and her seven year old son, who was the last of Mrs. Tucker's family, died Saturday. Until these most heart rending blows, so swiftly following each other, occurred, it was indeed a happy family and many a tear has been shed in sympathy for the remaining ones in their sad bereavement. Mr. Lynn leaves an estate of some $15,000 to $20,000, after having supplied each of his children with a home at their marriage. His funeral was preached by Rev. R. R. Noel at the homestead, Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, and his remains were interred in the family burying-ground on the Lynn place immediately thereafter, in the presence of a large number of friends.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—A couple of sows and pigs for sale. R. E. Barrow, Stanford.

—Mercer County Fair at Harrodsburg, Ky., Tuesday, Aug. 14-17.

—A. T. Nunnelley sold to D. N. Prewitt a car-load of lambs at 3½ cents.

—Wild West Show at the Mercer County Fair each day. Don't fail to attend.

—WANTED—To buy a good combined mare, a black or a bay preferred. Call at this office.

—See the competitive Beef Cattle Rings at the Mercer County Fair, Aug. 14th, four days. $100 to the best herd.

—Running and Trotting Races each day at the Mercer County Fair. Don't forget the date, Aug. 14-17.

—LANCASTER COURT.—A small crowd and business generally dull. About 25 scrub cattle on the market. Prices for this class ranged from $2.50 to $2.65. A few horses and mules were sold at ordinary prices.

—Monte Fox, of Boyle, passed thro' Stanford Friday with a car-load of mules on his way to Monticello, where he will retail them. He bought them in this and Boyle county, at prices ranging from $100 to $160.

—The wheat crop of Mercer county surpasses the fondest expectation of the farmer, both in yield and quality. It is estimated that the wheat crop will be about 350,000 bushels. The corn never looked more promising and a rain ten days hence will make the corn superior to that of 1882. The complaint now heard from the farmer is "that they will have to pull down their barns and build greater," to accommodate the great crops. —[Harrodsburg Democrat.

—J. H. Bonta, this county, threshed by machine measure last week 636 bushels of wheat off of 13 acres of land, being a fraction over 48 bushels per acre. On 47 acres he raised 1,615 bushels, an average of 34⅓ bushels per acre. Col. J. W. Guest has shipped his fine 2-year-old, Heron, to Saratoga in charge of Campbell & Hankins. He has several engagements there and will probably start in the $40,000 Futurity Stakes at Coney Island this fall. Wm. Rue sold for C. I. Pitman the very fine gelding, Robert Adair, 4 years old; to Charles Bailey, Woodford county, for $750.—[Danville Advocate.

Long-Standing

This medicine is an Alterative, and causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:—

"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a torpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured."—John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.

Last May a large carbuncle broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more Wonderful Results.

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight."—Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Tyron, (of Fernandina, Fla.,) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months."—T. E. Wiley, 146 Chambers st., New York City.

"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared and I was completely cured."—Mrs. Augusta A. Furbush, Haverhill, Mass.

ROCK CASTLE SPRINGS.

ROCK CASTLE SPRINGS, July 21.—For years I have listened to songs of praise and perused eulogiums from such pens as Soule Smith's and those of lesser lights, of the beauties and advantages of this favored place, but a "pressure of other matters" and a "lack of space"—of time prevented me from seeing with my own eyes, like the Queen of Sheba did when she journeyed from a far country to pay her respects to old man Solomon, that the half had not been told. The natural advantages of the place are absolutely incomparable and cannot be fully appreciated until you have enjoyed them. The scenery, the boating, the rambles, the accommodations, the excellent management, the water, the atmosphere, et cetera, combine to make it a perfect Paradise of delight, while the guests in their efforts to add to the enjoyment of each other still further induce the belief that one is already enjoying the raptures promised in the "sweet bye-and-bye." Unlike the resorts which pride themselves in the term fashionable, Rock Castle puts on no style; everybody gets acquainted at once with everybody; there is no exclusiveness and the whole happy family, as it were, mixes and mingles in the general pleasures of the place.

To most people the stage drive from London here is the great bugbear, but it needn't be. In fact, to the lover of nature it is one of the features, and by no means an unpleasant one of the visit. Sears & Bro. have a line of easy-riding, three-seated hacks and they make their well-kept teams step right along over a road which for the most part runs over the top of a ridge overlooking the magnificent Cumberland range, and is as good as the best pike. There are bad places and steep hills, of course, but Jehu Sears knows how to handle the ribbons, as well as keep his passengers in good humor, and you get over them so nicely that you hardly realize it. I had for companions Messrs. Shackleford Miller and E. W. Kriemer, of Louisville, and they kept things so lively we were here and being inspected by the crowd, which always gathers on the arrival of the stage, even before Mr. Miller, who was going to see his sweetheart, had grown impatient.

There are about 100 of as pleasant people here as one would wish to meet. They are principally from Louisville and Cincinnati, though St. Louis, Atlanta and points even more remote are represented. From Louisville are Mr. W. H. Newman and family, which include his pretty daughter, Miss Bessie, and niece, Miss Ethel Rennick, Misses Mary Wilman, Maud and Annie Ainslie, Floye McGonigale, Mary O'Sullivan, "Jim" LaRue, Katie and Sallie Humphrey, Florence Toomey, Katie Stopler, Mrs. Hewitt, Mrs. Ainslie, Mr. and Mrs. Toomey, H. W. Reise and family, E. W. C. Humphrey and family and scores of others; Miss Addie Aldrich and a dozen more, Cincinnati; Rev. S. Noland and wife, Nicholasville; Mrs. J. S. Raine and her two lovely daughters, Misses Annie and Dora, of Atlanta. Mrs. Raine was a Miss Hutchison, of Lincoln county, and is still a very handsome woman, although sons and daughters have grown up to manhood and womanhood by her side. Bro. John Bell Gibson is also here and is the "courtingest" man in the lot. Miss Minnie Elliott, Kirksville's charming representative; Mrs. C. D. Thompson, Misses Grubbs and Riker and Lafon Riker, Harrodsburg, and many others "too numerous to mention" make up our very happy family. Dr. J. F. Barbour, of Louisville, is resident physician, but his occupation's gone, so healthy does every one become.

It has been too cold this week for bathing and yesterday the time usually devoted to it was given a floating concert. The musicians, led by Mr. Campbell with that fine cornet presented by an unknown friend last winter, were seated on a barge, while the guests in skiffs and other craft rowed in front, alongside and behind, forming a water scene as lovely as it was animated and cheerful. Then as the sweet strains of music floated over the river and echoed and re-echoed around the cliffs and ledges, every heart was inspired with its beauty and for the nonce forgot all else than the exhileration of the moment. It alone was worth coming thither to enjoy.

Brox Noland continues, as he has for nearly a score of years, to be the champion croquet player of this place. There is hardly a person here that can approach him, but they do say he couldn't win so freqnently if he didn't "push" his ball instead of giving it a square hit. Mr. Newman wears the honors of the best quoit pitcher and seems as proud of them as Bro. Noland is of his. It is wonderful to see how young these ancient gentlemen get under influence of the bracing air and invigorating conditions that surround them. Even Bro. Ewing Hayden is transformed into a lady's man and becoming so popular with them that the pretty creatures vie with each other for his smiles. An effort to entrap him into matrimony failed, however, and he departs to-morrow, leaving many a sad heart, himself still heart-whole and fancy-free, the more's the pity.

In addition to the creature comforts, we do not lack for spiritual consolation, for in addition to Bros. Noland and Gibson, we have Rev. Mr. Brown, now of Indiana, but formerly of Georgetown, Ky., to administer it. Bro. Gibson is to hold forth to-morrow at a neighboring church.

Manager Campbell is assisted for the present by his partner, Major J. S. Hughes, and everything runs as smoothly as if lubricated. They, their excellent wives and Mrs. Murphy have shown me many favors which only a man with "sore toe" can fully appreciate.

—Melville W. Fuller has been confirmed to be Chief Justice. The vote was 41 to 20. The speaking on the case was by Senators Edmunds, Evarts and Stewart, and by Senators Farwell and Cullom in defense of Mr. Fuller. The democrats did not speak.

—A Logansport small boy fell into a cistern. Three women, who were trying to rescue the youngster, dropped through the platform and alighted on top of him. Did this kill the small boy? Ah, no! When the coroner and undertaker arrived he was all alive and nearly dry.

—The residence of Hon. Thos. H. Honks, at Lawrenceburg, was destroyed by fire Friday. It was the finest residence in the county and elegantly furnished. Insurance only $5,000. This is Col. Honk's fourth fire within a year. In fifteen years he has lost $80,000 in this way. It was the work of an incendiary.

—The long drawn out contest between the L. & N. railroad and A. J. Asher over the right of way over a strip of land about a hundred yards long, in sight of Pineville, owned by Asher, was brought to a close Saturday by the payment to Asher of $3,000, the amount of the award made to him by the jury in the Common Pleas Court last week.

—The stage running between San Luis Obispo, Cal., and Templeton was robbed by a masked man while crossing the mountains. The robber ordered the driver to stop and immediately covered him with a revolver. He then compelled the passengers, six in number, and the driver to alight from the stage. The passengers were placed in a row and robbed of $500. About $1,000 was also taken from a Wells-Fargo Express box.

—Jay Gould and John Mackay have made a trade involving $11,000,00. For a while a small matter of $2,000,000 split them, but they brushed that aside with less diplomacy than two horse jockeys would employ when obstructed by a matter of two barrels of corn boot in a horse swap. All wealth is the product of labor. The enormous sum paid by Gould to Mackay represents the sweat of men toiling in the field, the shop and the mine and the transaction only serves to point out that something is out of whack in our governmental policy when monopoly fills one man's coffers at the expense of thousands of others.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Mr. W. P. Scott, superintendent for D. S. Hinman, will begin on Thursday the roof and other tinwork for the addition to McCullom's hotel, at Junction City.

—Mr. Charles Phillips, four years ago book-keeper for B. F. Phillips, is in town Mr. Phillips now has a good paying position in a railroad office in Dallas, Tex.

—A party composed of John D. Potts, W. F. Vickery, Miss Fannie B. Vickery, Miss Ida Bryant, Miss Alice Nave, of Somerset, stopped here for supper Sunday evening on their way home from High Bridge. Mr. Potts was reared in Danville and was telegraph operator at the depot for several years.

—Mrs. Maria M. McGoodwin, wife of J. K. McGoodwin, died Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. She had been in bad health for a year and five days ago was attacked with acute gastritus of such severity that her illness was almost hopeless from the first. Mrs. McGoodwin was the eldest daughter of Dr. J. M. Meyer, of this county.

—Mr. Sitwell Harris, of Louisville, the hotel register man, is in town. He is the same gentleman whom Mr. John Manley, the husband of "Mrs. Grace Manley," the fascinating blonde circulating library person, represented to be in an insane asylum. Manley made this representation in order to encroach upon Mr. Harris' customers among hotel men. As for "Mrs. Grace," although known to be a fraud, she bamboozled the boys so nicely that if she were to return she could probably do it again.

MISS TILLIE HALL, formerly of this place, but now of Winchester, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Davis. Her many friends are delighted to have her remain in their midst.

WE see from the Harrodsburg Democrat that Nath Woodcock is again on Kentucky soil, only on a visit, however. We'll wager he's a citizen of this State inside of two years.

REV. MORRIS EVANS, of Lancaster, will remove to this place the latter part of this week and will occupy the residence which will be vacated by Rev. A. S. Moffet on Danville pike.

CAPT. AND MRS. J. E. DUKE, who have for the past two years made Stanford their home, left Saturday for Louisville to live. Capt. Duke has a through freight on the Short Line, which is quite a promotion.

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY returned Friday from Laramie City, Wyoming, to spend a month with his family. He is considerably fleshier than when he left which proves that the West agrees with him. Mr. Saufley is greatly pleased with his new home, but is still satisfied that Kentucky is the State.

MR. W. M. O'BRYAN, the genial gentleman who has been depot agent for a number of years at Crab Orchard, has been tendered the position as agent at Rowland and will take charge of it Aug. 1st. We are indeed glad to have Mr. O'Bryan, who with his wife and family will reside in Stanford, in our midst. Mr. J. A. Newland, agent at Pittsburg, will succeed him. Mr. J. A. Ferrill, who has had charge of the Rowland office, will likely engage in other business.

MR. SAM HOLMAN, who sees after passengers from Crab Orchard Springs, is the man for the place. He has done us many favors this season, which we appreciate.

DAN SLAUGHTER, of Dripping Springs, is a genius in many ways. He is able in prayer, graceful in the dance, handy with the pistol (when occasion requires,) can write a good newspaper article and preach a pretty fair sermon. Besides all this, he "knows how to keep a hotel." —[Jessamine Journal.

ALL old accounts not paid by August 1st will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. Six months is as long as I can wait for my money and I am compelled to do this. A. T. Nunnelley.

JUDY ROUT, a young colored woman, who lived in Macksville, fell dead while attending to her work, Friday. It is thought that it was heart disease, as she had before been troubled with her heart.

MR. A. R. PENNY has contracted with Raney & Allen for a two-story frame dwelling on his lot on Lancaster street. When completed Mr. Penny says it will be the most convenient dwelling in Lincoln county.

THE cross pavements in the business portion of town, which have for such a long time needed attention, are being taken up and replaced by a splendid crossing of solid rock cut about 20 feet long by 3 wide.

THE new hotel at Pineville has purchased a fine piano for the benefit of its guests. This piano enjoys the distinction of being the first and only one ever in Bell county. The citizens are crowding the new hotel to see the wonderful "music-maker" as they call it.

IF Stanford would follow Louisville's example and enforce the law requiring merchants not to monopolize the sidewalks with their wares, the pedestrians would not have to knock against each other in passing, nor pick their route through the small passways left by the greedy merchants, who ought to know that their stores are the places to show their goods.

JOHN DELANEY, a brakeman, with headquarters at Rowland, was sent back from his train just beyond Mt. Vernon to flag another train, which would soon follow. The train being a little late, Delaney took a seat on the track and in a few moments was fast asleep. The train came, which did not awaken him, and he was run over by it, losing an arm and perhaps otherwise fatally injuring him. Mr. Delaney has been in the employ of the company for a long time and is considered a good man.

ONE of the most elegant as well as one of the most delightful entertainments it has been the pleasure of the Business Manager to attend for many a day, was the hop given by the Lancaster Hop Club, at the Opera House Friday night last. The weather was propitious, the music grand and the young ladies beauty itself; in fact everything seemed to combine in favor of the hop, which was pronounced a decided success by all who attended. Promptly at 9 o'clock the sets began to form and at 9:30 some 50 or 60 couples were keeping step in the lancers to Saxton & Trost's superb music. The home gentlemen were untiring in their efforts to entertain the large lot of visitors from neighboring towns and it is needless to say that everybody had a good time. The ladies from here and a description of their dresses are as follows: Miss Pearle Ketcham, white silk, decollete; diamonds; Miss Ella Shanks, pink silk, plush, pearl passamenterie; diamonds; Miss Bessie Reid, pink moire; diamonds; Miss Rhoda Portman, black lace diamonds; Miss Bessie Richards, white cashmere; pearls; Miss Anna Reid, dotted Swiss, gold. The gentlemen in attendance from here were: D. R. Carpenter, John Smiley, Joel Embry, Geo. Penny, John Williams, B. G. and E. Pennington, J. C. Reid, C. C. Carson, T. A. Rice and E. C. Walton.

MRS. W. M. BRIGHT will teach a school of small boys and girls, commencing about September 1st. She will state later on where she will have her school-room.

GEORGE POPE, of the L. & N. wrecking crew, had a couple of his toes broken while clearing up the wreck on the Cumberland Valley Branch, of which a mention was made in our last issue.

MRS. J. M. MCROBERTS, JR., kindly remembers us with a liberal sample of tomatoes grown by herself. They are the finest we have seen, three of them from the same vine weighing three pounds.

CRAB ORCHARD is rapidly filling up with guests and the prospect is that this splendid resort will soon have the crowd its excellent management deserves. The fare is excelled by no hotel in Kentucky or elsewhere.

THE young ladies of Lebanon give a leap year party to-night. The "Jenkins editor" and several other gentlemen here were remembered with invitations from Misses Mary and Lunette Severance, who recently visited Stanford.

I HAVE gone into the shoemaking and repairing business for myself and hereafter will be found at my home, opposite Col. W. G. Welch's residence, where I will be glad to wait on my old customers and as many new ones as may come. T. J. Hatcher.

FOR the benefit of those who have asked so often where the circus will stretch its canvas, we will state that the people in the Miller Extension, nearly opposite Mr. S. J. Embry's, have been favored and that there all that is human in this part of the country will assemble.

SUNDAY'S Courier-Journal contained a cut and short biography of Capt. W. W. Sweeney, the oldest conductor living and who runs on this branch of the L. & N. The gentleman's name was printed in large letters just under the picture, consequently we recognized it at sight.

YESTERDAY was gala day at Mt. Vernon. Main's circus and a republican meeting both in town. Lawyer Davison was a speaker at the meeting and he would be a republican of exceeding bad taste who would leave an assemblage with this renowned gentleman as master of ceremonies. We suppose the circus had a rather dull day.

SATURDAY night as Al. and Jack Beazley were returning home, the young horse they were driving became frightened and started to run down the cemetery hill. When the horse had gotten in good speed the harness broke and the gentlemen were lifted from their seat to the ground in a most unpleasant way. Neither were hurt seriously but the buggy was considerably damaged.

THERE is a probability, says our Maywood correspondent, of the republicans putting up a man to run against Mr. Newland for re-election to the office of Sheriff. We have heard a great deal about this movement of "the enemy," but have not been able to learn what lamb will be put up to be slaughtered. It will be pretty safe to say that somebody will run and to be on the safe side, let all of the democrats in the county go to the polls Monday week and give Newland the biggest majority the county ever gave. He has made a most excellent officer and we know of no better way of showing our appreciation of him.

CHEEK.—Sunday afternoon while the editor pro tem. was sitting in his sanctum sanctorum, enjoying the beauties of nature, reading the daily papers and occasionally building an air castle or two, a gentleman, seemingly from the rural districts, marched in and asked for the editor. With assuming dignity the editor p. t. informed the intruder that he was the man looked for. Asking for a piece of paper and a pencil he retired for an hour or so and then returned, bringing in his hand a "little article," as he called it, which he desired printed. After carefully perusing it, it was found to be a personal of the most gushing nature, with the gentleman himself the subject. Counting the lines the editor informed him that it would cost $3 for one insertion, it being 20 lines and our price 15 cents per line. The poor fellow who thought "it pleasant sure to see one's name in print," said he would be back in a few minutes with the money. It is needless to say that he has not since been seen. We will not call his name, but there are those who will have a pretty good idea as to whom we refer when we state that he has recently gone into the book selling business.

NEWS comes from Carlisle that Mrs. Will Craig has presented her husband with another girl.

THE town tax books are now ready and Marshal George Carpenter will be around to see you in a few days. Please prepare for his coming.

SCOTT FARRIS will give a fair and picnic at Spring Hill Park, Crab Orchard, next Saturday, when $100 in premiums will be awarded and a good time generally is promised.

MR. R. C. WARREN has received from Mr. M. C. Alford, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, a letter stating that the democrats will hold another business meeting at the Galt House in Louisville, to-day and urging him to be in attendance. He had not decided at the hour we went to press whether or not he would go as he had pressing business here.

THOSE of us who witnessed the eclipse of the moon Sunday night enjoyed a treat which does not occur often in a lifetime. Fortunately it was clear and promptly at the advertised moment, 10:10, the performance began. The earth's shadow slowly enveloped the orb and in an hour its light was entirely shut out, leaving a copper colored ball hanging in the heavens. It was sublime and awe inspiring and one could but reflect on the wonders of nature and the perfection of the science that so many years ago foresaw and foretold what would occur on that July night, 1888.

WE desire to call the attention of the democrats of Rockcastle county to the mistake we think they make in not accepting as members to their Cleveland and Thurman club boys under 21 years of age. We believe in furthering the democratic cause in any and all honorable ways, and we know of no better way than to train them to walk in the right path while they are young. Some of the most enthusiastic and most active members of our club here are boys 18 and 20 years old and while they cannot vote themselves they can and will do great good for the country at the polls in November.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—There is a movement on foot to get Sam Jones to deliver a lecture here.

—Over 10,000 persons attended the High Bridge camp meeting Sunday, and the receipts amounted to $7,000.

—Rev. Strother Cook, Jr., returned missionary from Africa, and a son of a prominent Baptist preacher in Mercer county, Rev. Strother Cook, Sr., has joined the Christian Church at Harrodsburg.

—Rev. R. R. Noel writes: I am now engaged in a most glorious meeting at Moreland. Crowded houses and much interest manifested. Rev. Preston Blake, of Richmond, assisting. Nine to date and just commenced. All christians pray for us.

—Rev. R. B. Mahoney's church at Newport is in a prosperous condition. It has a membership of 400; 22 of which have been added since he became its pastor six months ago. The members are all active and most delightful harmony prevails. He preaches twice every Lord's day and has religious services of some kind every night in the week except two. The church has three Sunday schools under its supervision.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

A Communication From Co'. Welch.

[To the Editor of the Interior Journal.]

A decent regard for public opinion seems, in the estimation of some of my friends, to require that I should notice a card published last Saturday by the editor of the Herald, giving his version of a recent personal altercation between u . How hypocritical and false it is from beginning to ending no one, who heard the proof at the trial, needs to be told, but for those who were not present, distasteful as the task is, I beg to submit a statement on my part.

The editor of the Herald had published in his paper a most scurrilous card which while it gave no name, was unmistakably intended for me. The card was utterly without justification, provocation or excuse. It is true a game of cards for amusement merely was played in my back office, but the game was closed at 1 o'clock, there was no knowledge on the part of the players that this man was in his office, no care whether he was or not, and nothing said to or about him. Indeed I never once thought of him. The card was published solely to carry out its author's declared purpose "to stir up the hornets and make them buzz." It was printed because he is that kind of a publisher who obtains his news by listening at key-holes and peeping through back windows and uses it only to defame private character. When the perpetrator of this character of outrage is an irresponsible tramp the law can afford neither protection nor redress, while to ignore it altogether is only to invite and sanction a repetition of it.

When, therefore, I first met this person after being shown the card, I asked him if it was intended to apply to me. He answered with quite an air of surprise that it was not. I inquired if he were quite certain. He declared "upon his honor" that he had no reference to me whatever. I believed he lied and said so, but told him I would accept his disclaimer if he would write it over his signature. He said he would do so with pleasure. We then walked back to a desk and I handed him a sheet of paper. After hesitating and cerieying a short while, during which I did in emphatic language promise to cane him if he did not write, he suddenly dropped the pen and started to run. I then gave him a sound beating with a small cane I carried. After the cane was worn out and he had fled to the cellar, I am sorry to confess that I followed and bestowed upon him a few supplementary kicks. I did not shoot at him twice nor at all. If I had done so I don't think I should have missed him. This, in brief, is the whole story.

I am far indeed from taking either pride or pleasure in this recital. On the contrary I feel, both in kind and degree, very much the mortification with which one might recall a successful encounter with a pole cat. I drop the subject gladly and for good. I hope also I am done with my assailant—this is in any event my last card. I feel that I might justly have characterized him in much plainer language than I have, but I can not stone even a Pariah in cold blood, and besides he wears a family name which has always been held an honorable one in Lincoln county. W. G. WELCH.

MAYWOOD.

—The present corn crop, the oldest farmers say, will be the finest ever raised in the grand old county of Lincoln.

—The death of Mr. Craig Lynn is quite a calamity to this community. But I presume you have an extended notice of his death elsewhere.

—Hale's Well is on a boom and when I visited there a few days ago quite a crowd of Stanford people were among the guests. The proprietor has everything in apple-pie order and as neat as a new pin.

—I learned from a prominent citizen yesterday that Mr. T. D. Newland would probably have opposition from the republican side of the house for the office of sheriff. The rads. are wonderfully well organized, as was demonstrated in the last election in August, and as they prefer darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil and their tricks vain, they will likely try to slip up on Mr. Newland election day. Whether they do or do not try it, it is the duty of every democrat in the county to go to the polls on that day and cast his vote for the ticket. Every rad. in the county will be out that day and you can bet your bottom dollar on that, it matters not what they promise.

F. F. B. Pays a Tribute to Mr. H. E. Bryant Who was a Former Lincoln County Man.

To the Editor Interior Journal.

CRAB ORCHARD, KY., July 17, 1888.—I was pained to notice in your last Tuesday's issue that H. E. Bryant had been foully murdered at his ranch in New Mexico. He was indeed a most worthy young man and of rare promise. He was raised near Crab Orchard and he went to school to me, and a more moral young man never lived. He was free from all the vices. Did not smoke, chew tobacco, drink whisky, use profane language, nor was there a single vice to which he was addicted, even after attaining his manhood. There was scarcely a preacher in all the land that could have compared moral escutcheons with that exemplary young man. He, upon the recommendation of the magistrates of Lincoln county, entered the A. & M. College at Lexington, Ky., and there he was a most devoted student, and acquired a fine education. He taught school one session and acquitted himself with great honor, and was pronounced by all the patrons of the school to be the best teacher that ever taught in the district. He wrote like copy plate and was one of the finest accountants I ever saw.

How lamentable that one so young, so gifted, so accomplished and so thoroughly qualified for business, and to adorn society, should thus prematurely meet death and be cut off from his family, his friends and the enjoyment of his honors by a trio of desperadoes, a thousand of whose lives could not atone for the one they have taken. Until the resurrection morn he will sleep in his bloody shroud in a far distant Territory, near 2,000 miles from the place of his birth. The cold night dew will fall in silence upon his distant grave and the last rays of the setting sun will kiss the wild flowers that grow upon it; but he will heed them not; but when the grave is called upon to give up its dead he will be as near Heaven there as if sleeping amid the beautiful green hills of his own Kentucky home.

Marion Harland's Opinion of Baking Powders.

Our readers have doubtless noticed the numerous discussions by the scientist and hygienists as to the relative value of the various baking powders. A careful sifting of the evidence leaves no doubt as to the superiority of the Royal Baking Powder in purity, wholesomeness and strength, from a scientific standpoint. An opinion, however, that will weigh heavier than any other with our practical house-keepers, is that given by Marion Harland, the best known and most popular of American writers upon matters pertaining to the science of domestic economy, of house-keeping and home cooking. In a recent letter to the Philadelphia Ladies Home Journal this writer says:

"I regard the Royal Baking Powder as the best manufactured and in the market, so far as I have had any experience in the use of such compounds. Since the introduction of it into my kitchen, 3 years ago, I have used no other in making biscuits, cakes, etc., and have entirely discarded for such purposes the home-made combination of one-third soda, two-thirds cream of tartar.

"Every box has been in perfect condition when it came into my hands, and the contents have given complete satisfaction. It is an act of simple justice, and also a pleasure, to recommend it unqualifiedly to American housewives.

MARION HARLAND.

"Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 30, 1887."

Miss Kittie Wilkins is called the horse queen of Idaho. When she was a little child her father gave her a handsome filly, and the increase of the filly paid for her education and gave her a start in business. She now owns a horse farm and raises Percherons, Morgans, Normans and other fine breeds to the number of 1,000 animals. Her farm is not far from Boise City. She is thorough in her knowledge of horses, rides superbly, can shoot like a cow-boy and is young and fairly good-looking and is too independent to fall in love.

An average sized whale in the Atlantic will yield 100 barrels of oil and 2,000 pounds of bone.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newara, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of the Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in the best of health." Sample bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store.

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove Pimples, Boils, Salt Rheum and other affections caused by impure blood. Will drive Malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all Malarial Fevers. For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction gauranteed or money refunded. Price 50c and $1 per bottle a A. R. Penny's drug store.

Actresses are especially noted for their fondness for pets. Sarah Bernhardt likes a tiger cat; Fanny Davenport used to fancy a doll that she could dress and undress; Rose Coghlan loves babies, and Mrs. Langtry likes horses and dogs.

Beauty

Is desired and admired by all. Among the things which may best be done to enhance personal beauty is the daily use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. No matter what the color of the hair, this preparation gives it a lustre and pliancy that adds greatly to its charm. Should the hair be thin, harsh, dry, or turning gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore the color, bring out a new growth, and render the old soft and shiny. For keeping the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, there is no better preparation in the market.

"I am free to confess that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me that it is a genuine article. Its use has not only caused the hair of my wife and daughter to be but it has given my rather stunted mustache a respectable length and appearance."—R. Britton, Oakland, Ohio.

"My hair was coming out (without any assistance from my wife, either). I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, using only one bottle, and I now have as fine a head of hair as any one could wish for."—R. T. Schmittou, Dickson, Tenn.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor in my family for a number of years, and regard it as the best hair preparation I know of. It keeps the scalp clean, the hair soft and lively, and preserves the original color. My wife has used it for a long time with most satisfactory results."—Benjamin M. Johnson, M. D., Thomas Hill, Mo.

"My hair was becoming harsh and dry, but after using half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it grew black and glossy. I cannot express the joy and gratitude I feel."—Mabel C. Hardy, Delavan, Ill. *

The Original Wins.

C. F. Simmons, St. Louis, Prop'r M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine, Est'd 1850, in the U. S. Court DEFEATS J. H. Zeilin, Prop'r A. Q. Simmons Liver Regulator, Est'd by Zeilin 1868.

M. A. S. L. M. has for 47 years cured INDIGESTION, BILIOUSNESS, DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, LOST APPETITE, SOUR STOMACH, ETC.

Rev. T. B. Reams, Pastor M. E. Church, Adams, Tenn., writes: "I think I should have been dead but for your Genuine M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine. I have sometimes had to substitute "Zeilin's stuff" for your Medicine, but it don't answer the purpose."

Dr. J. R. Graves, Editor The Baptist, Memphis, Tenn. says: I received a package of your Liver Medicine, and have used half of it. It works like a charm. I want no better Liver Regulator and certainly no more of Zeilin's mixture.
